tuttu пух-стол

The TUTTU Lumberer pouf table is the personification of a brutal man, imitating generations of fathers and grandfathers, cultivating his virility, while possessing a subtle intellect, which is not alien to reasoning about the eternal. When creating the image, a deliberately rough retro style was chosen: thick khaki canvas fabric, contrasting stitching, elements made of thick belt leather. It arose due to the demand for a return to masculinity, men's interest in life in nature, the desire for manual housework, and as an antithesis to modern trends in favor of male effeminacy. The removable pillow has an outer and inner cover for easy care.
