Leggio is a series of wall-mounted console tables with a laconic appearance. It is inspired by the Italian music stand table of the same name. Its image is based on two components: a wooden body and a stable metal pedestal. The console table is equipped with two Hettich smooth-opening full-length drawers with a maximum load capacity of 20kg. Leggio has artisanal woodworking features important for interiors with a hügge philosophy. And also the energetic shape of the pedestal, which gives dynamism to an object that you will interact with on a daily basis.
